TWENTY THOUSAND RACE GOERS CHEER OPENING OF SEASON AT BELMONT PARK

"Plantagenet" winning third race at Belmont Park, L. L., on opening day.

The racing season at Belmont Park, L. L. had an auspicious opening a few days ago. The weather was ideal and the turnstiles at the gate entrance clicked 20,000 when the racing for the 1914 season opened. The third race started with a string of six-year-olds.. "Plantagenet," with Johnny Wolfe up, early took the lead and made all the running. "Comely" kept pressing the winner pretty hard, but at the final sport "Plantagenet" came across the winning tape in easy fashion. Time, 0:5334.
